Nickey is located on the second floor of College Hall....Tom Mayes can be seen this week on WTOP-TV, Channel 9, delivering a 30 second public service announcement about the Continuing Education Program. Copies of the video tape have also been made available to other area TV stations. Keep an eye out for it....Jack Gannon has been in Holy Cross Hospital since last Thursday night and is doing very well.

JAPAN BROADCASTING COME TO GALLAUDET

Mr. Ichimura from the Japan Broadcasting Corporation was at Gallaudet this Monday. He is working on a documentary about TV programs for the deaf with the opes that Japanese TV will begin to offer programming for the deaf in Japan.

Mr. Ichimura became interested in the idea after watching Cynthia Saltzman sign the morning news on WTOP-TV.

Seven Gallaudet students---Carolyn McCaskill, Susan Stern, Mary Kay Barbieri, Joe Castronova, Melinda Chapel, Jack Aaron, and Bonaventure Achinanya--were filmed watching Cynthia and then were interviewed for their reactions. Mr. Ichimura expressed an interest in the possibility of returning to Gallaudet to do a documentary about the College for Japanese television.

ON THE GREEN is published each week by the Office of Alumni and Public Relations for the faculty and staff of Gallaudet College. All news is welcome. Phone 0396 or TTY 0480.
